

FIGURE 4—Pagurized Fusitriton oregonensis (Redfield, 1848), Pleistocene, Palos Verdes Sand, San Pedro, Los Angeles Co., California, CAS loc. 91.07. A) Fusitriton oregonensis with two spionid trace fossils in columella (arrow) and doubled hole spionid tubes on outer lip, incomplete specimen: aperture length (to end of siphonal canal) 35 mm. B) Fragmented F. oregonensis with encrusting bryozoan in interior aperture and on columella, shell height 59.4 mm. C) Encrusting bryozoan in columella (arrow) and siphonal canal of F. oregonensis, incomplete specimen, shell height approximately 59 mm. D) Trace fossil of encrusting bryozoan in columella (arrow) and interior of outer lip of F. oregonensis, shell height 74.7 mm.